

New Jersey's Do Not Call List has given dinnertime back to me and my family. Previously, we would be inundated by telemarketers throughout our family dinner - this has ceased since the New Jersey Do Not Call List was brought into effect. I implore you to not strike it down - in fact you should tighten up the Federal Do Not Call List to mirror that of New Jersey's.